Vending innovation award: Vending Star 2007
--

We are familiar with the terms of the competition, and in accordance with them we hereby enter a vending innovation for the award as described below.
We confirm that we are eligible to enter, that we developed the innovation ourselves, and that no third parties have property rights (trademark rights, patent rights, etc.).

Our entry belongs to the following category (please tick as appropriate):

- Technical equipment (vending machine, dispenser, payment system or similar)
- Device to enhance the operation of vending machines
- Concept for a new kind of vending business idea (already implemented)
- Product (suitable for dispensing / selling from vending machines and / or preparing in vending machines)

Should we win an award, we are willing and able to exhibit our entry / concept at the Innovation Area of Eu'Vend (Cologne, 20th to 22nd September 2007). We will transport the item to and from Cologne at our own cost and risk.

Should we win the competition, we will attend the awards ceremony in Cologne during the evening of 21st September 2007.

We consent to Koelnmesse and the BDV reporting on our entry and notifying the press.

We also acknowledge that Koelnmesse and the BDV will treat details from our application confidentially, insofar as the information we supply is not required by the judging panel or the press.
